Fowlmere Primary Newsletter

6th November 2026

Week 9

Welcome Back! I hope everyone has had an enjoyable half term break.
This week started very positively, with a group of children from the Owl Class representing Fowlmere school as they took part in the postponed Netball Tournament. The children worked incredibly well as a team; showing superb sportsmanship and did very well; I am sure you will agree, they looked very smart in their new kits!

Remembrance Service

On Sunday 8th November, there will be a Remembrance Service at St Mary's Church in Fowlmere. This will start promptly at 10:30am at Fowlmere War Memorial. Children from the Owl Class will be reading at the War Memorial and it would be lovely if you were able to join us there.

PTFA (Parents, Teachers and Friends Association).

Earlier this week, you will have received, via email, an invitation to the Wreath Making event, which is being run by the PTFA. It is on the 2nd December at 6pm in school - for more details, please see email. Message from the PTFA: A BIG thankyou to all those who contributed to the Owl Cake Sale before half term break. Thank you for baking, buying, selling and eating cakes. You managed to raise £63.43 to support your school. The next cake sale will be provided by the Goldfinch Class on Friday 27th November. For those that like inspiration, it can be Guy Fawkes, bonfires and fireworks.
To remind you - the PTFA AGM is on Thursday 12th November at The Chequers Pub - it would be lovely to see you there, you are most welcome. Mrs Brooks will be there representing the school.

Christmas Craft Workshop - 28th November 2026

On Saturday 28th November, there is a Christmas Craft workshop being held at St Mary's Church between 2-4pm. To book a free space - please see poster
